

INPEX JODCO Foundation, Emirates Falconers' Club Sign Falconry Collaboration Agreement on the UAE-Japan Falconer Friendship Program

The INPEX JODCO Foundation (the Foundation) announced that it has signed Falconry Collaboration Agreement with Emirates Falconers' Club (EFC), a non-profitable organization of the United Arab Emirates (UAE), to jointly implement cultural exchange projects between the falconry cultures of the UAE and Japan based on the memorandum of understanding*.

* https://www.inpex.co.jp/english/news/assets/pdf/20230126_b.pdf

Agreement signing ceremony

H.E. Majed Ali Al Mansouri / Secretary General, EFC and Hiroshi Fujii / President Director, INPEX

Together with EFC, the Foundation plans to carry out mutual exchange projects between the falconry cultures of the UAE, which is an important cultural heritage in the UAE and is also registered as a UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage, and the falconry culture of Japan. Additionally, the Foundation plans to conduct projects for the promotion of traditional cultures of both countries to youth.

The Foundation will continue to promote mutual understanding and friendship between the UAE and Japan.